The Junk in Your Trunk

Several years ago I clipped an article out of the paper and misplaced it. Eventually, it was found it in the trunk of Christie's car. It was titled, "Is there junk in your trunk?" Apparently, the answer is, "Yes!" Here's what I found: golf clubs and shoes, an athletic bag filled with gym clothes that needed to be washed, winter gloves, work gloves, two baseball hats, a sock cap, a fundraising order form for pizza, jumper cables, washer fluid, one can of fix-a-flat, one clothes hanger, one ice scraper, and a mileage logbook.

Good thing I'm not a pack rat.

Those were the things in my trunk. The glove box, the sun visor and various other compartments remained closed, but those places were filled with sugarless gum, napkins, ballpoint pens, flashlights, rubber bands, garage door openers and receipts. Is all that stuff really necessary?

The book of Ecclesiastes is a journal that records Solomon's attempt to find fulfillment. Sparring nothing in his pursuit, Solomon confessed, "I hated everything I had accumulated on this earth because I can't take it with me" (Ecclesiastes 2:18, The Message). My guess is that lament included the junk in the trunk of his chariot.

Some believe that you are what you drive. What you are, however, has nothing to do with what you drive, and everything to do with what's in your trunk.

I still love being your pastor! Tony

P.S.: We have received an offer on our house in Ladoga. Our intention is to move to Wabash on November 18. I will drive back each Sunday to preach until my replacement is found. Selfishly, I hope it takes a while.
